ALL YOU CAN ART!

Welcome back !

As the world is opening up again, I would like to offer you another workshop:

This is a workshop with an open studio concept in any layering technique.

Last year I have been offering workshops in a large studio space that I can rent for this purpose.

I am now planning an Open Studio workshop for Sunday July 18.

Please, have a look and see if this is right for you.

Don't wait too long if you want to register, because experience tells me that the workshop will fill up quickly, especially since I am only taking 6 participants this time, to give you extra work room and enough attention! Let me know if you have any further questions. You can reach me by email or phone, see below.

All You Can Art ~ Sunday July 18, 12.00 – 5.00 PM

Bring a painting you are working on, or a new canvas to start something. Bring your tools and off you go! In this Open Studio of 5 hours, you will be able to try out new techniques, or simply work on something you would like guidance with that you have already started. A great opportunity to finish that art piece that is sitting in your studio, or to start an exciting new work!

I will be around to help and coach you to enhance your art piece, correct where necessary and inspire you to explore your creativity. Really, this workshop is ALL YOU CAN ART!

The Mayer Studio, 111 – 1000 Parker street

The studio has its own entrance on the outside of the building

Free street parking in the area
